

Please do everything possible to keep the no call list enforced to the utmost. My life has become much more calm since I have been on this list. It is so annoying to be interrupted by a phone call that I am not interested in receiving.